Appeals Book 2017-2020

Changes made to the Appeals Book 2017-2020 since it was first published in January 2017.

This paper lists the changes that have been made to the online pdf of the Appeals Book 2017-2020 since it was first put online in early January 2017.

In Section 1 – Abstracts of Appeals and Cases by Rule Number

The updated abstracts from the 2017-2020 World Sailing Case Book have been incorporated into the Index.

Rule 11 – add Appeal 108:

“When a leeward boat is changing course toward a windward boat, she may need to change course away from the windward boat when the boats get near each other in order to continue to give the windward boat room to keep clear.”

Rule 19.2(b) – add Appeal 71:

“Section C rules apply at starting marks not surrounded by navigable water. Rule 19, not rule 18, applies when the mark is a continuing obstruction. Rule 19 does not apply until boats are at an obstruction. A penalty can be given even when the protesting boat does not mention the applicable rule.”

Rule 62.1(a) – add Appeal 39:

“The responsibility for a boat’s decision to participate in a race or to continue racing is hers alone. If she does not start and is scored accordingly, she cannot receive redress by claiming that the race committee acted improperly in deciding to conduct the race in conditions it considered to be suitable. Protest committee members who believe they have a close personal interest in a decision concerning their actions as race committee members act properly when they decline to take part in the hearing.”

Rule 70.5 – replace abstract for Appeal 22 with this abstract:

“A competitor in a race or series has a conflict of interest. His participation in any part of a protest hearing, except as a witness or a party to the hearing, makes the hearing invalid unless all parties have consented to his participation, or the protest committee has decided that the conflict is not significant. Unless rule 70.5 applies, the right of appeal cannot be denied.”
