ARTHUR B. HANSON RESCUE MEDAL

to the crew of

SUMMERTIME DREAM

FOR THE RESCUE AS FOLLOWS:

Tom Ciura and his family were heading home on Summertime Dream, in their 26' Sea Ray power boat, in 20 knot winds, high seas, in deteriorating weather when he spotted objects floating in the water. Upon closer examination, he saw it was six people, none with PFD's. Their 15' outboard powerboat has swamped and sunk. He called the USCG and began to manually pull all six out of the water with the help of his family.

The Arthur B. Hanson Rescue Medal was awarded to Tom Ciura and the crew of Summertime Dream for this rescue event.
