

Tuesday, December 14th
12:00-12:45	State of US Olympic Sailing Paul Cayard, Executive Director, US Olympic Sailing w/ Luther Carpenter
1:00-1:45	2021 Coaching Lessons, Inspirations, Directions, and Future Goals for the Coaching Community Luther Carpenter, Senior Olympic Coach, US Olympic Sailing
2:00-2:45	The Intersection of Abuse and Sports Cynthia N. Mejia Colin, Training Manger, US Center for SafeSport & Jessica Dariat, Compliance Manager, US Center for SafeSport
3:00-3:45	Bringing Physics & Data into Your Training Program Riley Schutt, Head of Technology, US Olympic Sailing
Additional webinars (available with limited enrollment for a registration fee).
4:30-6:00	Keeping Courage Afloat Dr. Tim Herzog, Founder, Reaching Ahead LLC Registration fee: $35 / Limited to 28 participants

Wednesday, December 15th
12:00-12:45	Planning for Performance Chris Clements, Founder, People Optimization.
1:00-1:45	A Critical Examination of Care in Coaching Kristen Dieffenbach, PH.D., President, US Center for Coaching Excellence
2:00-2:45	2022 Youth Racing Outlook John Pearce, Director of Sport Development, Phil Muller, US Sailing Developmental Coach of the Year, and Justin Ahern, iQFoil Coach, US National and Gulf Coast Championships.
Additional webinars
3:30-5:30	Lessons Learned from the Tokyo Olympic Games & Rule Situations that Most Sailors Don't Know...But should. Dave Perry, U.S. Sailing Team Rules Advisor Registration fee: $20 / Limited to 75 participants

Thursday, December 16th - Additional webinars only
1:00-3:00	Lessons Learned from the Tokyo Olympic Games & Rule Situations That Most Sailors Don't Know...But should. Dave Perry, U.S. Sailing Team Rules Advisor Registration fee: $20 / Limited to 75 participants