USA Selection for the Youth Worlds

US Sailing's ISC will select one eligible prospective athlete in each of the single-handed classes and one team of two eligible prospective athletes for each of the double-handed classes to represent their country at the 52nd Youth Sailing World Championship expected to be held in December 2023 (exact event dates and location TBD). The top eligible finisher in their class at the following event will earn selection:

- US Youth Championships | June 26-30, 2023 | US Sailing/RWU, Bristol, RI

If this regatta is a "non-event" as defined in the Notice of Race for that event, cancelled, or postponed, then the ISC will publish a revised selection procedures as soon as practicable.

Substitutions

- Should a selected single-handed athlete be unable to compete for any reason, including injury or illness, the next highest-ranking athlete will be selected.
- In double-handed classes, should both selected athletes in a double-handed boat be unable to compete, the next highest-ranking team will be selected. Should only one of the selected athletes (either skipper or crew) be unable to compete after selection, a substitute athlete may be approved by the ISC.
- Athletes shall submit requests for team composition changes in writing to the ISC by contacting olympic@ussailing.org. The ISC reserves the right to disapprove the request and select the next highest-ranking team.

Athlete Conduct

Any athlete found to violate the US Sailing Code of Conduct at any time from the publishing of this document through the commencement of Youth Worlds may not be eligible to represent the USA at Youth Worlds. All decisions regarding an Athlete's violations of the US Sailing Code of Conduct regarding an athlete's eligibility to compete at Youth Worlds will be made by US Sailing, based on the procedures defined in the US Sailing Bylaws and Regulations.
