USA Selection for the Youth Worlds

US Sailing's International Selection Committee (ISC) will select one eligible prospective athlete in each of the single-handed classes and one team of two eligible prospective athletes for each of the double-handed classes to represent the United States at the Youth Sailing World Championship. For all classes, the top eligible finisher in their class at the following event will earn selection:

- U.S. Youth Championship | October 10-13, 2025 | Fort Lauderdale, Florida

If this regatta is a "non-event" as defined in the Notice of Race for that event, cancelled, or postponed, then the ISC will publish revised selection procedures for the affected class(es) as soon as practicable.

Selected athletes must accept their spot at the Youth Sailing World Championship by emailing youth@ussailing.org within 10 days of selection. Athletes who do not accept selection may be replaced by the next high-ranking athlete or team.

Substitutions

- Should a selected single-handed athlete be unable to compete for any reason, including injury or illness, the next highest-ranking athlete will be selected.
- In double-handed classes, should both selected athletes in a double-handed boat be unable to compete, the next highest-ranking team will be selected. Should only one of the selected athletes (either skipper or crew) be unable to compete after selection, a substitute athlete may be approved by the ISC.
- Athletes shall submit requests for team composition changes in writing to the ISC by contacting youth@ussailing.org. The ISC reserves the right to disapprove the request and select the next highest-ranking team.

Athlete Conduct

Any athlete found to violate the US Sailing Code of Conduct at any time from the publishing of this document through the commencement of Youth Worlds may not be eligible to represent the USA at Youth Worlds. All decisions regarding an Athlete's violations of the US Sailing Code of Conduct regarding an athlete's eligibility to compete at Youth Worlds will be made by US Sailing, based on the procedures defined in the US Sailing Bylaws and Regulations.

Athlete Ombudsman

Athletes who have questions regarding their opportunity to compete that are not answered by US Sailing may contact either of the following:
